

SUNDAY NIGHT LIVE

Live Entertainment
with a Twist of Faith

... meet new friends, hear great music, be inspired ...

Emker Cel at Costa Coffee Dalton Road, Barrow Sunday 7th January, 7.00pm

Emker Cel is the pseudonym of Barrow-born Matt Kassell. Matt is a singer-songwriter, producer, recording engineer, teacher and multi-instrumentalist who has worked in the industry for over two decades.

Following a music degree Matt has played in various bands around the UK and abroad, from original acoustic folk-pop of April Maybe May to his role as bass player in The Beatle5.

As with his last visit to Sunday Night Live in summer, Matt will be playing a mixture of songs from last year's debut album and from the second album which is due for release in early 2018, along with a few choice covers.

Expect an evening of original, melodic, thoughtful songs from a truly independent local artist!

Bring a friend and enjoy an evening of great music in a friendly listening atmosphere!

This free live entertainment with a 'twist of faith' is organised by St. Mark's Church at Costa Coffee on the first Sunday of the month Doors open at 6.30pm and the evening finishes around 8.30pm.
